WURTA's Mission

Wisconsin Urban and Rural Transit Association (WURTA) provides a strong and cohesive voice by representing transit in Madison as well as Washington DC. The membership has a pulse on legislation and other issues that affect all Wisconsin Transit systems and works proactively to improve transit systems throughout the state.

Who is WURTA?

- Represents...
 - 28 urban and rural bus systems
 - 43 shared ride taxi systems
 - 24 associate and affiliate members
- Transit operations employ more than 2,900 workers statewide
- $280 million annual expenditures in transit statewide
